Our Practices

On becoming a Christian and committing their life in faith to Christ Jesus, a Christian should be baptised as a public statement of their faith. Baptism by immersion shows that they are made new in Christ, sharing in His death and now given new life in Him. Acts 8:36; Romans 6:4; Colossians 2:12

Christians should remember the Lord, especially His death, burial and resurrection and their relevance, and do this by joining in the Lord's Supper or communion, sharing in the bread and wine. Acts 20:7; 1 Corinthians 11:23-26; 1 Peter 2:9; Hebrews 10:19-22

Christians are to meet together forming a local church. It will function with the leading of the Holy Spirit for worship, prayer, teaching and fellowship. They will seek to do everything to the glory of God. The local church is to be guided by elders, and membership is open to all Christians who share these beliefs and seek to live by them. They will seek to share with others the good news of salvation through Jesus Christ. Matthew 18:20; Acts 2:42; 1 Peter 5:1-3; Matthew 28:18-20
